

HOW TO TELL A COACH WHY YOU MADE THE CALL THE WAY YOU DID

KISS – Keep it Simple Stupid

SLICE

Show Respect

Listen

Invoke Judgement

Choose Small

Earn Respect

Coach, I am (Doing X Based on his question.)

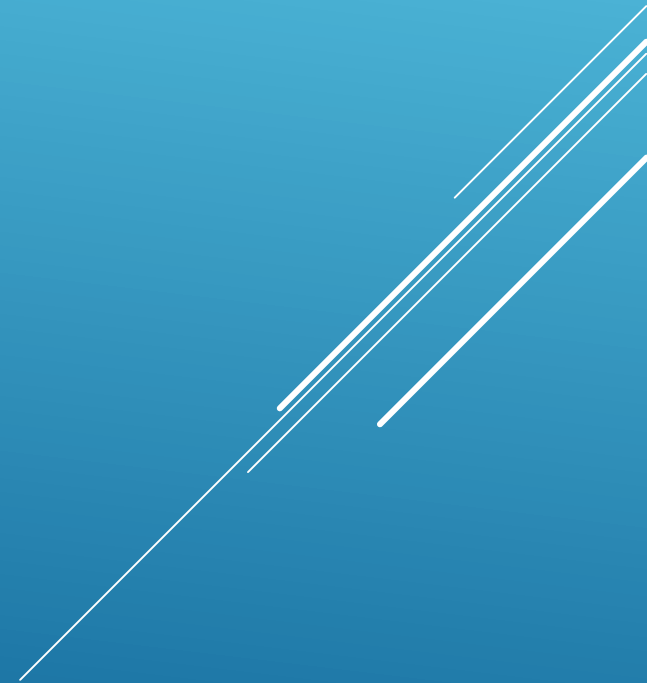

Because in my judgement (Smallest definition that supports your judgement)

A decorative graphic consisting of several parallel white lines of varying lengths, slanted upwards from left to right, located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

Example 1

Hit by Pitch

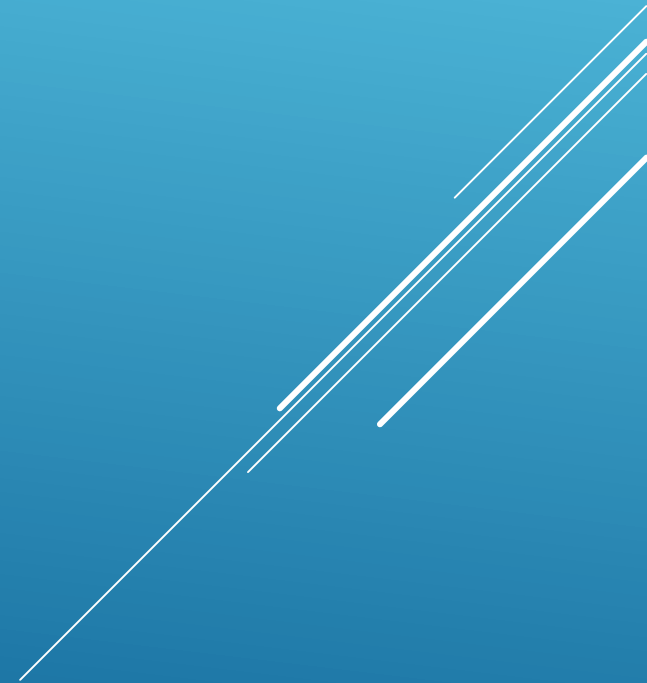

Coach, I am bringing your batter back to bat
Because in my judgement your batter intentionally tried to get hit by that pitch

Runners Lane Violation

Coach, I am calling your batter runner out

Because in my judgement he had one foot entirely out of the lane and interfered with the fielder taking the throw at first base.

Example 3

Force Play Slide Violation

Coach, I am calling a force play slide rule violation
Because, in my judgement your runner did not slide directly into the base.

A decorative graphic consisting of several parallel white lines of varying lengths, slanted upwards from left to right, located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

Example 4

Batters Interference

Coach, I am calling batter's interference because in my judgement your batter had one foot out of the box and hindered the catcher's throw.

Example 5

Home Plate Slide Violation

Coach, I am calling your runner out for a collision rule
Because in my judgement your runner did not slide legally on the ground prior to contact with the catcher.

Decorative white lines consisting of several parallel diagonal strokes in the bottom right corner of the slide.